J-Jams to begin June 2.

Canton, Ohio. The fourth season of J-Jams, the free noontime concerts at The Cultural Center for the Arts, opens June 2 with blues guitarist and singer Jeff Poulos. Subsequent free concerts, slated every Wednesday in June and July from 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m. will feature:

June 9	Passport 7
June 16	Modern Roots Band
June 23	Ryan Humbert
June 30	Major Lee
July 7	Danny Milan
July 14	Tim Griffiths
July 21	Bob Corlett & the Zydeco Kings
July 28	The Big Sweet

J-Jams proceed rain or shine as inclement weather brings the concert inside, to the Great Court of The Cultural Center for the Arts. Chick Fil A will be selling sandwiches, wraps and drinks while Eat @ Jakes will be serving up sausage sandwiches. Attendees can also bring a brown bag lunch as tables and chairs are provided.

J-Jams are sponsored by ArtsinStark. For more information about ArtsinStark or J-Jams please call Judi Christy at 330-453-1075, ext 206 or contact judi@artsinstark.com

J-Jams are located under the Cultural Center for the Arts patio: 1001 Market Avenue North. Canton, OH 44216.
