ArtSplash takes the Chill out of Winter

Bundle up the kids for a few hours of family art making, entertainment – and learning at the Cultural Center for the Arts on Saturday, January 23 from 11 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. for ArtSplash.

Admission for ArtSplash is free for make-n-take art projects from the Canton Museum of Art, Canton Symphony Orchestra, Players Guild Theatre, Timken, Aultman, Mercy Medical and Nationwide. Entertainment on the Great Court stage from the Canton Ballet, Canton Idol, Green High School Ensemble, TENEO (from Malone University), the Ananda Drum Circle, and Silver Star Youth Theatre.

Demonstrations from ArtsinStark SmArts schools from Canton Local, Jackson Local, Massillon City and the Arts Academy at Summit will be occurring with teachers offering take-home lessons for parents and caregivers to use in integrating arts with academics – the focus of the SmArts program.

Also on hand will be sand sculptor Laurie Tournoux (sponsored by Day Ketterer), face painting with students from the Canton South marching band, a raffle for adults (sponsored by Diebold), and free admission to the Canton Museum of Art's latest exhibit, "Something from Nothing." Food available for purchase. Free parking.

All children, under 16, must be accompanied by an adult.
